

ICPA
International Corrections
and Prisons Association
for the Advancement of Professional Corrections

Salford University Centre for Prison Studies (SUCPS)

In collaboration with the Romanian National Administration of Penitentiaries and the International Corrections and Prisons Association, the Salford University Centre for Prison Studies (SUCPS) is proud to host:

"The Romanian Prison System after 20 years of Democracy"

a Conference in honour of

Dr. Ioan Bala, Director General,
National Administration of Penitentiaries, Romania

Thursday 25th June 2009, 10.30 am

Venue: 'The Think Lab', Salford University, Greater Manchester, England

Director General Bala holds a doctorate in Criminal Sciences and a Masters degree in Sociology. He is a member of the Association for the Promotion of Women in Romania and Coordinator of a multidisciplinary team aimed at upgrading clinics for children at the Turcanu Louis Hospital. Dr. Bala is working closely with Babes-Bolyai University and SUCPS in the development of prison staff training post de-militarization.

Conference co-presenters:

Ed Wozniak - "The International Corrections and Prisons Association: a Role for Correctional Professionals"

Adrian Neagoe - "21st century prison - The transnational dimension"

Programme

10:30am: Registration and coffee

11:00am: Welcome by Dr. Elaine Crawley, Director of SUCPS & Governor Richard Vince, HMP Manchester

11:30am: Keynote Speech: Dr. Ioan Bala, Director General, Romanian National Administration of Penitentiaries - "The Romanian prison system after 20 years of democracy"

12:30pm: Buffet lunch

1:30pm: Ed Wozniak, Executive Director, International Prisons and Corrections Association (ICPA) - "The International Corrections and Prisons Association: a Role for Correctional Professionals".

2:15pm: Dr. Adrian Neagoe, International Cooperation and Programmes Department, Romanian National Prison Administration - "21st century prison - The transnational dimension"

3:00pm: Coffee

3:30pm Question and Answers: Discussion Session

4:00pm: Thanks and Close